

E
Its end I cannot see

B
And I will knock on every door

C# minor B
For I do not have a key

C# minor A
And the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

B
Well I sang to myself

C# minor B
That I want to be free

C# minor A
But the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

E B
They shot a man in Soho

C# minor B
Couldn't guess his age

C# minor A
I found his empty journal

E
I filled up every page

B
I called up my state senator

C# minor B
They said he wasn't there

C# minor A
The secretary took my name

E
And man she sounded scared

B
So I counted my misfortunes

C# minor B
I added up the blame

C# minor A
I picked through all the garbage

E
I checked off all the names

B
I read in the newspaper

C# minor B
They'd questioned all my friends

C# minor A
They hoped that they could find me

E
Before I struck again

B
Well I sang to myself

C# minor B
That I want to be free

C# minor A
But the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

E B
So when thirsty I will drink

C# minor B
When hungry I will steal

C# minor A
But the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

B
So tonight I walk in anger

C# minor B
With worn shoes on my feet

C# minor A
But the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

B
And I will sing to myself

C# minor B
That I'm gonna be free

C# minor A
But the road I must travel

E
Its end I cannot see

B
There's a sign along the highway

C# minor B
But it's too dark now to read
